Action Log

The final edits of the Project Execution Plan will be incorporated after the July 10th review.

The Tour Guide revision has been completed and enough for the coming week's tours will be printed on Thursday. The R&D Needs validation will be discussed on Monday, 6/16. The review of the draft INEEL Groundwater/Vadose Zone Monitoring Report will be completed after 10/1/03 unless the edits are minor and the time and funding are available.

The INRA Subsurface Science Symposium needs to be added to the log.

Eight people attended the Groundwater Awareness Project meeting in Boise. Jan also talked with Rocky Barker from the Idaho Statesman regarding input to a series on groundwater. The Aquifer Academy leg of the project is looking at developing a 100-level college course during 2005.

Hydrogeology Tours Preparation

The dry run for the tours will be tomorrow (Thursday, 6/12). The Snake River Alliance currently has 28 registered and other lists of attendees are due at noon two days prior to the tour. Jan and Marilynne will assist in developing flyers for the two RC&D tours (July 16th and August 19th).

Approach for use of the EM-50 Carryover Funds

Plans for the $50K EM-50 carryover funds are to use them to develop the Vadose Zone Conceptual Model Summary, continue the portfolio analysis, and to broaden the fate and transport scope to look at surface water and air transport conceptual models.

Jeff indicated that his priorities would be (1) the vadose zone summary, which would be good to have completed prior to the science workshop; (2) complete the monitoring and surveillance report, including recommendations for FY04 changes; (3) look at tracer study needs.

Paul will look at the tracer issue and report back at the next meeting

Al asked about the cumulative risk tool. A white paper was provided to Jim Herzog, but nothing further has been done. Al will check with Herzog.

Other Business

Paul will be setting up a meeting of all the players in information management – there are many organizations and individuals involved.

Jan Brown's last day will be June 26th. She will be leaving the INEEL to be Executive Director of the Yellowstone Business Partnership. Jeff and others thanked her for all her efforts and the progress that has been made toward changing the INEEL's image throughout the region.

Adjourned at 2:00 p.m. Next meeting will be June 25th, 1 p.m.
